

Are you a business owner? Do you know what the Small Business Development Center can do for your business?

We have invited Jack Taylor, of the Small Business Development Center (SBDC) of Dillon, CO to talk about the services they provided to businesses.

Please come with questions for Jack about what the SBDC can do for your local business. Do you have questions about funding, when and how to take the next step, effective and inexpensive marketing ideas? Please come with a question or concern that your business is currently facing.

When: Wednesday, September 14th, 2011 at 6:00 pm

Where: the Mountain Parks Electric Community Room

Sponsored by the Grand County Business and Economic Development Assn. (BEDA) and Grand County Businesses without Borders (GC BWB)
